

Best Western Swan Hotel

A stunning location

Stunningly located in the shadow of Wells Cathedral, the Best Western Swan Hotel is steeped in 600 years of history.

With a unique charm, the hotel offers guests modern amenities in a beautiful and relaxed setting.

Award-winning food and attentive service ensure any visit is one to remember.

Elegance and comfort

The hotel has 48 individually designed bedrooms, in standard, superior and deluxe categories.

Rooms are available in a variety of styles, from modern contemporary designs to those featuring antique furniture and four poster beds. The best of the best is the luxurious Cathedral Suite, which offers a stunning view of Wells Cathedral.

The quality of food has been recognised with a number of dining awards including two AA Rosettes.

The restaurant, 15c A.D. and bar are open throughout the year. During the summer months, dine alfresco in the secluded Walled Garden Café and on Swan Terrace. Private dining is also available.

Award-winning food

Health, happiness and hospitality

A health suite is available on site for the exclusive use of guests.

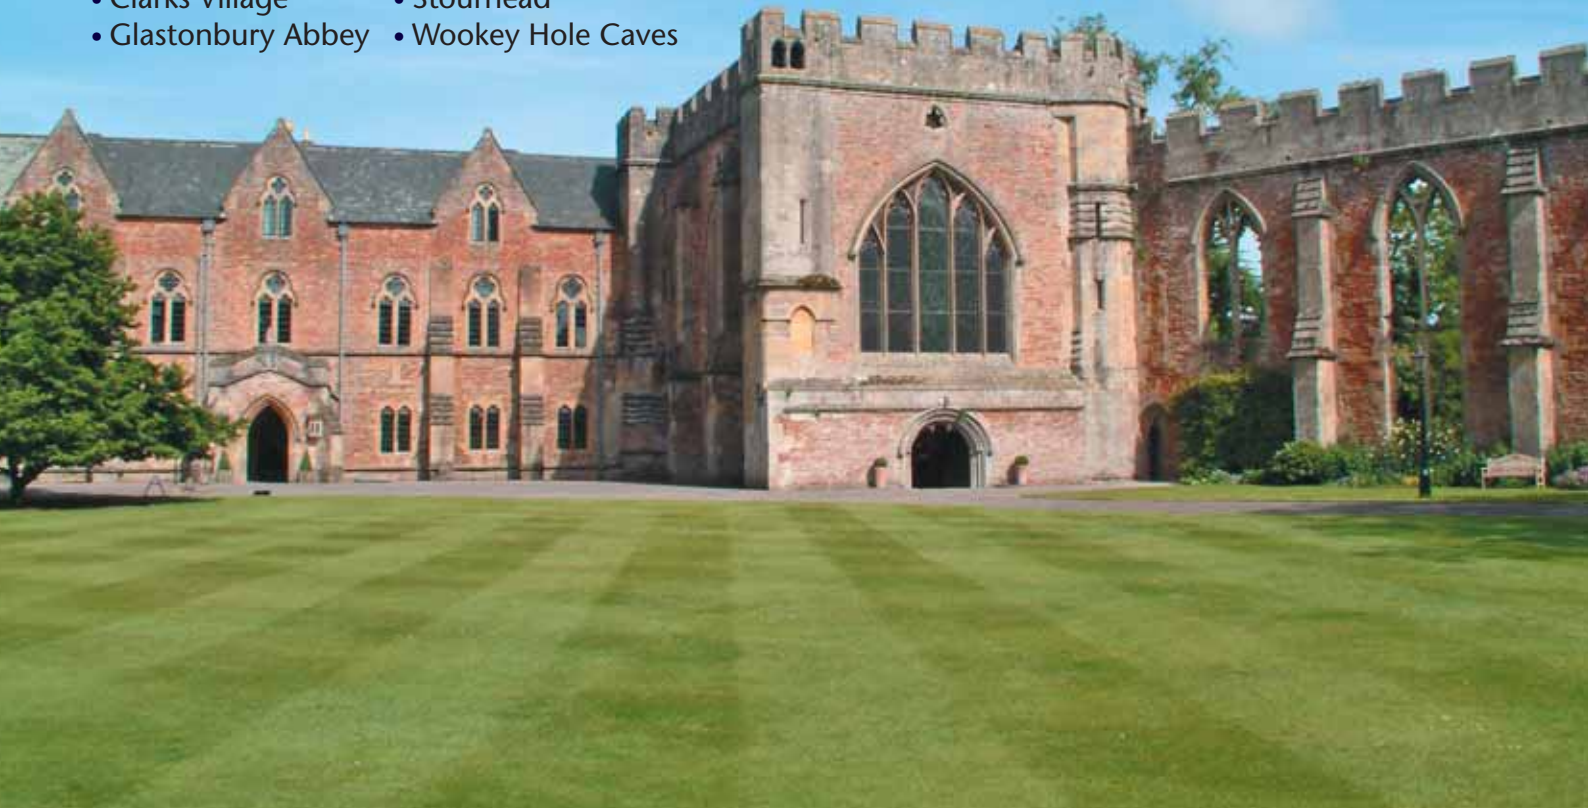

Enjoy the perfect wedding celebration, from a small intimate gathering to a large reception. Civil ceremonies can be held in the Garden Room.

The hotel has individual conference rooms and can accommodate up to 100 delegates.

Wells and the surrounding area offer plenty to see and do. The Cathedral and Bishop's Palace (pictured) are just a few steps from the hotel.
